

Arthur Leclerc

French Immigration Law

Arthur Leclerc is a French administrative and immigration law attorney.

He holds a Master's degree (Master 2) in International and European Law, obtained in September 2022.

He was admitted to the French Bar with a specialization in International and European Law in December 2022.

Arthur completed a six-month collaboration within a chamber of the Administrative Court of Toulouse, specializing in immigration law, as well as various internships and collaborations with law firms specializing in administrative, nationality, and immigration law.

He specializes in immigration and nationality law.

His belief: "There is always a solution."

Advisory Services

- Residency permits
- Family reunification
- Naturalization
- All types of administrative disputes

Litigation Services

- Denials of residency permits
- Denials of visas
- Denials of naturalization and French nationality applications"

GROSSMAN YOUNG & HAMMOND
TRANSCENDING BORDERS℠