

Aurore Le Roy de la Chohinière

French Civil Law

Aurore is a French business and civil law attorney based in Toulouse, practicing at CLF AVOCATS, a law firm specializing in insurance and liability issues in civil law. She holds a degree in International Business Law from the University of Lorraine (France) and a degree in International Commercial Law from Swansea University (United Kingdom). Over the course of her career, she has developed expertise in various areas of commercial and civil law.

Aurore has been a member of the GYH team since 2017, focusing on U.S. business immigration law. In January 2025 she started a new chapter in her legal career, practicing as a French lawyer in corporate and insurance issues, and overseeing GYH's correspondent team in France.

She can also provide referrals for competent lawyers specializing in business establishment in France.

Affiliated with the Toulouse Bar, Aurore can assist clients in the following areas:

Advisory Services

- Handling disputes related to unfair competition, counterfeiting, abrupt contract termination, or non-performance of contracts
- Real estate and construction law
- Co-ownership law
- Professional liability
- Compensation for personal injury
- European litigation regarding the determination of the competent court and applicable law

Litigation Services

- Resolution of disputes before courts
- Settlements
- Mediation assistance

GROSSMAN YOUNG & HAMMOND
TRANSCENDING BORDERS℠