In today's uncertain and constantly changing environment, timely and accurate immigration advice is more critical than ever. For decades, Becki Young has successfully guided leading hospitality properties through the U.S. immigration process. The immigration process can be complex and confusing. Our firm strives to make it as simple and efficient as possible, through:

- Prompt and personalized service
- Innovative solutions to tough immigration problems
- Cost-effective strategies
- Use of the latest technology
- In-depth knowledge of the hospitality industry
- Extensive network of experts and industry contacts

We can guide you through the immigration process step by step, providing advice during the hiring and selection process (to advise you of a candidate's likelihood of success in securing U.S. immigration status), preparing the necessary petitions to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services and other government agencies, counseling your employees regarding the visa application process at a U.S. consulate abroad, and serving as a resource for any questions that arise during your employee's stay in the U.S.
