IMMIGRATION LAW FOR THE GENERAL PRACTITIONER

Webinar

Friday, September 24, 2021

12:00pm - 1:30pm

1.5 CLE Credit in Professional Practice

Presentation by:

Khandikile Mvunga Sokoni, Esq., Grossman Young and Hammond, LLC

When do non-immigration attorneys need to know something about immigration law? Former FLWBA President, Khandikile Sokoni, Esq. will explain the range of issues which face family law attorneys, employment law attorneys, estate planning attorneys, criminal defense attorneys, tax attorneys, and others, to keep us well-informed and able to best advise all of our clients. A history of immigration regulation will also provide a solid basis for this new knowledge, so that we are better able to retain this new information (and perhaps help with our trivia scores). We will learn the basics of legal status, visas, and dual citizenship. Does the law impose travel restrictions on us, our clients, their children, prospective adoptive children, or spouses? What are the criminal or tax implications for clients with or without the legally required visas or other immigration documents? This information will benefit many of our practices in 2021, with the globalization of commerce and the people we seek to serve as clients.

Please join us for an informative 90 minute virtual CLE presentation at noon on Friday, September 24, 2021. [If conditions permit, we may set up a communal luncheon to view this presentation at the Tompkins County Public Library, but public safety considerations may not allow a gathering in late September. Stay tuned...]
